

STEAMER WALLA WALLA RUN DOWN IN MID-OCEAN BY A FRENCH IRON SAILING VESSEL.

EUREKA, Cal., Jan. 3.—The Steamer Walla Walla was sunk early yesterday morning as the result of a collision with an unknown French iron sailing vessel.

News of the disaster was brought to Trinidad by a boat from the foundered vessel and later the steamer Dispatch arrived with sixty of the crew of the wrecked vessel. The Walla Walla left San Francisco on January 1 for Puget Sound points.

Twenty-seven of the passengers and crew are missing. All the others are accounted for.

EUREKA, Cal., Jan. 3.—The steamer Walla Walla, bound from San Francisco for Victoria, B. C., was wrecked Thursday morning at 4:10 by a French four-masted bark. The Walla Walla had one hundred and sixty-five passengers aboard, and forty-five are reported drowned. The collision occurred twenty miles south of Mendocino Buoy.

The French bark struck the Walla Walla in the bow. At the time of the collision the second officer was on the bridge. No definite information can be learned as to the cause of the accident, as all on board were sleeping.

George Reese of San Francisco, a passenger, gave the following account: "It was 4:10 when the French vessel hit the Walla Walla in the bow."

"The weather was clear and the sea was rolling high."

"All were asleep."

"All were dumfounded."

"The passengers rushed out of their staterooms and the deck was crowded."

FASTENED IN ROOM.

"Captain Hall went down into the steerage and found a family of seven fastened in a room. Two girls of 12 and 14 years were fastened between timbers."

"The girls were released and the family assisted out of their berths."

"All prepared to leave the vessel, the Captain saying she would sink."

THE LIFE BOATS.

"Life boats and rafts were lowered. Life preservers were put on and the passengers lowered to the boats. The vessel did not sink until 4:45, giving the crew and passengers thirty-five minutes to leave the steamer."

"Sixty-three were lowered, the life saving boats then being filled."

"The excitement grew intense among the remaining passengers, women screamed and men and boys hurriedly jumped off the steamer, several not leaving until she started to sink."

"The officers were cool and collected, doing everything possible to save their passengers. No one knows the cause of the collision but the second officer, and he is missing."

AT MERCY OF SEA.

"As soon as the French vessel penetrated the steamer's bow it was but a short time until she withdrew, leaving the passengers at the mercy of the high sea, and lending no assistance whatever."

THEY WERE DRIFTING.

"We were drifting here and there, sixty-three in the life boats and rafts for over five hours. The boat I was in had twelve survivors, two ladies. A lady gave me a red shirt to signal the steamer Dispatch."

"We were recognized. The officers learning of the wreck searched for the others, until she had aboard sixty-three passengers."

"The Dispatch was bound from San Francisco to Seattle, but pulled into this port to land the rescued passengers."

"Captain Hall and the first mate were saved, the remaining officers being lost."

BOILERS EXPLODED.

"The Walla Walla was partially submerged when both boilers exploded, sending pieces of the vessel in every direction."

"The tugboat Baunher arrived here at 10 a. m. with fourteen more passengers picked up along the coast."

WOMEN SAVED.

"Among those saved were six women. A southwestern wind had drifted them fifty miles up the coast from where the wreck occurred. The sea, becoming rough it was dangerous for them to land, compelling them to remain at sea."

"Captain Hall is at the Hotel Eureka severely injured."

"Two life saving boats and one raft are yet unaccounted for."

OF THE ILL FATED

WALLA WALLA.

EUREKA, Cal., Jan. 3.—The Pacific Coast Steamship Company's steamer Walla Walla, Captain Hall, which left this city January 1st bound for Puget Sound ports, met with disaster yesterday morning in a collision with an unknown French iron sailing vessel and foundered. News of the disaster was brought to Trinidad, about thirty miles north of this place, by a boat from the unfortunate steamer, which when it left the scene of the disaster contained thirteen persons but when it arrived at Trinidad contained but seven persons.

SIXTY SAVED.

Later the steamer Dispatch arrived with sixty of the passengers and crew on board, including Captain Hall of the Walla Walla. Particulars of the disaster are hard to obtain at this moment. The crash occurred early in the morning while most of the passengers were asleep. Boats and life rafts were launched immediately and under the direction of Captain Hall and his crew, most of the passengers were placed safely on the rafts and in the boats but it is believed that the loss of life will be considerable. Tugs have been sent from here to the scene of the wreck.

The Walla Walla carried 36 first-class passengers, 23 second class and a crew of 60 men.

She was an iron screw steamer and was built by J. Roach and Sons in 1881. Her net tonnage was 2,168 and her rating was No. 1. Her length was 310 feet, breadth 40 feet 6 inches and depth 22 feet, 2 inches.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 3.—Captain Hall of the Walla Walla reported to

He said that the Walla Walla collided with an unknown French bark at 4 o'clock yesterday morning during hazy weather.

The French vessel had no lights displayed. The Walla Walla sank in fifteen minutes.

Captain Hall has ordered tug boats from Eureka sent out to search for three missing life boats of the Walla Walla.

CAPTAIN HALL WENT DOWN WITH HIS SHIP BUT WAS FINALLY SAVED

EUREKA, Cal., Jan. 3.—Captain A. L. Hall, Master of the wrecked steamer, gives a graphic account of the disaster. He says:

"We left San Francisco Wednesday bound for Victoria and Puget Sound. The weather thickened as the night advanced and Thursday morning a heavy fog, accompanied by a light rain, set in."

AN AWFUL CRASH.

"About 4:10 a. m. I was suddenly awakened by an awful crash on the port side well forward. Second Officer Luke was on watch at the time."

"The housing especially in the vicinity of my cabin, was badly shattered, the main force of the collision striking her just forward of my stateroom. My bunk was struck and thrown across the room onto my table."

BARK DRIFTED AWAY.

"After the crash the vessel, which I think was a French bark judging from the language used by her sailors, rebounded and groped alongside. I called to her to stand by. She drifted away and was lost to view. I could not tell how badly she was injured but I do not imagine severely."

"As she struck us bow-on, her forward rigging might have been broken. It is not likely her hull suffered materially. Those of the passengers who had not been awakened by the crash were aroused at once."

SANK IN THIRTY-FIVE MINUTES.

"The vessel began to fill immediately and she sank in thirty-five minutes. There was no confusion on board. The officers and crew kept the passengers from becoming panic stricken."

WORK OF CREW.

The crew was immediately ordered to man the life boats and rafts and an effort was made to save the baggage. This was given up, however, the vessel

Walla Walla.

The collision occurred at 4 o'clock in the morning, when all the passengers were asleep.

Some of the people on the steamer escaped in small boats and on rafts.

They were unable to land owing to the character of the coast and drifted about all day yesterday, when they were picked up by the steamer Dispatch.

One boat with seven persons in it arrived at Trinidad, twenty miles north of here.

AN INCOMPLETE LIST OF THOSE WHO WERE SAVED.

EUREKA, Jan. 3.—Following is an incomplete list of passengers saved:

For Seattle: A. S. Hall, Mrs. Timmons, Miss William, Mrs. Meydenbauer, J. Robertshout, J. Miller and wife, F. Haight, Miss G. Cadden, D. Stern and wife, W. P. Sanderson.

Second class—James Cannon, F. Demar, C. Gleason, G. F. Helgeson, C. Lawson.

For Vancouver—J. H. Brown and wife, Mrs. R. S. Edgar.

For Alaska—C. R. West, A. B. McClellan.

For Victoria—Mrs. Hastings, W. Duhler, R. Nevins.

A. Meydenbauer, Miss E. E. Peters, F. L. Smith, F. W. Stream and wife, Dr. B. F. Allen and wife, all for Seattle.

For Tacoma—M. C. Moraji.

J. W. Etershank, quartermaster; M. C. Linghan, P. C. Nissen, H. Harris, steerage steward; Mrs. A. T. Shovam, Ed Marshall, cook; O. W. Woolhouse, passenger; John McCulloch, fireman; Charles Brown, third engineer; William Shinn, coal passer.

It is impossible here to obtain the ship's list of passengers and crew. It is impossible so far to obtain the names of the missing. From what can be gathered the following are believed to have been drowned:

John Wilson, quartermaster; Mr. Doolley, passenger; William Bartell. Later information states that four lives were lost in making the landing at Trinidad, but it is impossible to ascertain the names no thought was given but for the safety of the passengers.

"I gave orders to have the port boilers blown out, it being necessary to give the vessel a list to keep the gaping hole in her side out of the water."

SAVING LIVES.

"In a few moments all the life boats and rafts were out with the exception of two, which were smashed. One of these boats contained nine or ten passengers. All were thrown into the water but managed to board the life raft which had been launched for a few minutes previously."

BOAT SMASHED.

"The second boat was smashed by striking a heavy object in the water, but all the passengers were rescued by another life raft."

"We had about sixty-five of the second class passengers on board and about one hundred and sixty souls all told."

"We had no knowledge of the approach of the vessel striking us, the weather being so thick that she was not seen until we were struck."

"It was very dark at the time and the uncertain light interfered to a great extent with the rescue of the passengers."

until the arrival of the survivors from that place.

PASSENGERS AND CREW ON THE LOST STEAMER.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 3.—The report from Eureka that there were 165 passengers on board the Walla Walla when she went down is probably not correct. The records of the steamship company in this city show that there were thirty-six first class passengers and twenty-eight steerage. The crew consisted of sixty men.

As the steamer did not stop at any port between San Francisco and the scene of the disaster it is not possible that any more than those listed at the steamship office here were on board.

The Pacific Coast Steamship Company has issued a later statement showing that the Walla Walla carried sixty-four passengers and a crew of eighty men.

The company has no definite information as to the number of persons drowned, but places little credit in the report telegraphed from Eureka that number of lost will reach sixty-five.

BROKEN BONES FOR STANFORD MEN.

PASADENA, Cal., Jan. 3.—Left tackle Traeger and left guard Roosevelt of the Stanford eleven are confined to their rooms at the Hotel Green with broken bones as a result of the terrific hammering they received in the New Year's game. Traeger, who played the game for Stanford in the line, is suffering from badly torn shoulder ligaments and Roosevelt is disabled by two broken ribs and a fracture of the left leg bone.

Both men pluckily refused to go out of the game until some time after receiving their hurts. The injured men will remain at the hotel under the care of a physician until they are able to travel.

RUN ON THE BANK.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 3.—When the doors of the Dime Savings and Banking Company were opened today a big crowd was in waiting to draw out deposits. Each person was handed a printed slip by the tellers, bearing the following notice:

"In order to best serve the interests of all depositors, the directors have instructed the officers to require a notice of sixty days from each depositor of the amount to be withdrawn. This action is in accordance with the rule printed in all savings deposit books. The assets of this bank are more than sufficient to pay all liabilities and leave the stock of the bank intact."

A run was started on the bank yesterday afternoon as the result of the announcement of the financial troubles of Messrs. Everett and Moore.

UNION SAVINGS BANK WILL ERECT A LARGE BUILDING ON SAN PABLO AVENUE

The Union Savings Bank is to move to San Pablo avenue above Fourteenth street, just across from the City Hall. The contemplated move is significant as showing the tendency of business to center in the neighborhood of Fourteenth street.

Recent business change is more important than this move of the Union Savings Bank, for it involves the erection of a splendid modern business block, larger than any now existing in the city.

This building will have a frontage of 150 feet on both San Pablo and Telegraph avenues, and a maximum length of 265 feet.

Across San Pablo avenue will be the City Hall and a little way north on Telegraph avenue the new postoffice is going up. As will be seen, the location is one of the finest in the city.

Walter J. Matthews, the architect, is now preparing the plans for an imposing bank and office building. The ground floor, except the portion occupied by the bank, will be given over to stores, and the portion above will be turned into a thoroughly equipped modern office building. It will be faced with stone or terra cotta on the avenues and built of brick. It will be four or five stories in height, with elevators and every modern convenience.

As yet it cannot be stated when the removal will take place, for the architect's plans have not been completed and the details as to cost and material have not been settled. Besides, there are tenants in the wooden houses on the ground where the new building is to be erected, and they must be given time to arrange for moving out. On the Telegraph avenue side there is a two-story wooden building and the San Pablo side is occupied by two wooden structures, one two-story and the other one-story in height.

The Pardee block adjoins the lot on which the new building is to be erected on the south at the San Pablo side. Some time ago the project of building a handsome modern hotel on this lot by a joint stock company was proposed, but the scheme fell through. Now the Union Savings Bank is going to build itself a magnificent new home there.

This is only the precursor of other removals to locations farther up town. It is understood that the First National Bank is on the lookout for an available site for a new bank building near Fourteenth street.

A GREAT PLANT.
What One of the Great American Music Journals Says.

In a recent editorial by the editor of the New York Musical Courier, the great American authority on musical matters, he says: "There is no limit to the capacity of the W. W. Kimball Company as a piano manufacturer; every one who has seen their capacity runs in every direction. There is no limit to factory capacity, no limit to the capacity to absorb every excellent idea in piano structure, no limit to the capital necessary to get there, no limit to the expertness and no limit to secure the very finest material and put it together in the very best manner. That all must be admitted."

"If piano people desire to see what is constituted under the term 'original,' we advise them to look at the several new designs and styles of Kimball upright pianos, to look at them. They are entirely new, the ordinary character of piano case work. The finish is simply exquisite."

Then look at the interior. The ordinary piano styles and furnishings are surpassed by new features simply startling."

"Then try the pianos. Test them severely. Go through the questions of dip, repeat and of sympathy of touch. All these will be found in the Kimball pianos, and the tone is rich, resonant and refined. The Kimball piano of the present day must be viewed as one of the greatest successes of recent piano history."

"Of course with this piano and the millions behind it, and the expertness and the knowledge of the business and the conditions of the piano trade to aid it, there is no limit to the capacity to absorb every excellent idea in piano structure, no limit to the capital necessary to get there, no limit to the expertness and no limit to secure the very finest material and put it together in the very best manner. That all must be admitted."

HEIRLOOMS TO GO UNDER HAMMER

Personal Property in Garcelon Estate is to be Sold.

This morning Judge Ogden granted the request of the administrator of the estate of the late Catherine Garcelon to sell all the remaining personal property belonging to the deceased, valued now, at a low estimate, at $750.

The inventory includes about 150 articles, some of which, in their day, were considered valuable, for extrinsic as well as intrinsic reasons. Many of these articles came from abroad. They were tributes of affection from the late Dr. Merritt to the deceased, his only sister. Among the articles are rare and curiously formed necklaces, bracelets and rings, the luster and value of which in greater measure departed with the advance of years. The most valuable feature of the collection is a pair of solitaire diamond earrings, which, in their time, gleamed in the ears of the deceased, but the value of which is now conservatively fixed at $150.

Attorney Haskins, who appeared in the application, stated when asked by Judge Ogden as to what the purpose was of selling the jewelry, that the sale was required to pay the expense of administration. This, however, will be difficult of accomplishment, when it is known that debts amount to more than $17,000, whereas the proceeds of this sale cannot possibly exceed $750.

In this connection it may be stated that there is in the inventory an article which was at one time well nigh of inestimable value in the eyes of a fashionably-attired woman. This is an India shawl, which the administrator says is absolutely valueless because of its moth-eaten condition.

The articles to be sold are as follows: 1 silver gravy ladle, 6 silver table spoons, 5 silver table spoons, 1 silver pitcher and goblet, 1 silver mustard spoon, 2 silver salt spoons, 6 silver salt spoons, 12 silver dessert spoons, 12 silver tea spoons, 12 silver forks, 12 silver ice cream spoons, 1 silver pickle fork, 1 fish knife and fork, 1 pie knife, 12 pearl handle dining knives, 12 pearl handle dessert knives, 12 pearl handle cutlery, 1 long gold watch chain, 1 gold vest chain, 1 cameo breast pin, 1 diamond medallion pin, 1 carbuncle breast pin, 1 set diamond earrings (4 diamonds), 1 silver card case, 2 cuff links, 1 silver watch chain, 1 gold chain bracelet, 3 solitaire diamond rings, 2 gold pencils, 1 cluster diamond ring, 1 fruit knife, 1 gold ring with rub, 1 gold quartz ring, 1 gold watch, 1 pair amethyst sleeve buttons, 1 pair coin sleeve buttons, gold, 1 gold shawl pin and chain, 1 pair small agate sleeve buttons, 1 pair small sleeve buttons, 1 gold brooch (no value), 1 pair gold earrings with pearls, 1 fancy locket, 1 pair of diamond eye glasses, 1 gold handkerchief holder, 1 gold watch, 1 gold watch key and locket, 1 gold hook (love), 1 pair gold bracelets, 1 pair shell ear drops, 1 watch chain and gold quartz, 1 Mosato breast pin, 1 gold quartz and diamond bracelet, 1 pair gold bracelets, 500 shares of the capital stock of the Horse Shoe Bar Mining Company, 1 India shawl.

CAPTAIN HALL WENT DOWN WITH SHIP

was proceeding to Seattle.

"When the vessel went down I was struck by a heavy spar and badly bruised up."

"I was badly bruised. This, with the exposure, left me in a very weakened condition, in fact, we were all more or less played out when Captain Johnson took us aboard the Diablot."

"From the information I have concerning the rescue of the passengers and crew, I am not able to state how large the death list will be, but in my opinion it will not be less than twenty and possibly may reach forty or fifty. A number were injured by the falling timbers. It is almost certain that a number of the steerage passengers perished in this manner."

SOME WERE MANGLED.
"The housing to the forward being split in two and rendered matchwood."

"Among the survivors the seriously injured are few, and while it may be possible that some were mangled, but few cuts and bruises came under my observation, and these, for the most part, were received by the occupants of the life rafts. While not very rough, the sea was misty and choppy, and the continual wash over the rafts was a hardship, especially to the ladies, many of whom were nearly in the last stages of exhaustion when picked up by the Dispatch."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Brigadier-General William H. Seamans, Adjutant General of California, died today in this city after an illness of three weeks. The immediate cause of death was inflammation of the heart and lungs, which followed an acute attack of inflammatory rheumatism.

A RANK PROPOSITION.

The admission of sugar from the Philippines and Cuba free of duty involves the giving up of a large share of California's interest in the protective tariff. Cuba wants us to let her sugar in free and to cut down the duties on her other products to one-half the present rates. In this request she is backed up by certain great protective interests in the East. Those interests desire to sacrifice California's ewe lamb to their own selfish greed. It is not proposed to disturb the protective duties on cotton, wool and silk manufactures—on steel and iron and agricultural implements, shoes and a hundred other articles. The Eastern manufacturers wish to keep all they have, but are anxious to see the sugar and citrus fruit industries of California to the lion as a sop to the sentimentalists and the free traders.

Well, brethren, it won't work. California is a protection State, but the voters here have no use for the kind of protection that leaves them unprotected while it protects somebody else at their expense. They are not going to sit idly by while their interests are being sacrificed on the altar of greed and sentimentality. They will resist any attempt to destroy their own home industries to add to the profits of the Cuban planters.

Why should the people of the United States make the Cuban sugar planters a present of $40,000,000 a year? If it be decided to make such an enormous contribution to sentimentality, why should one interest alone—confined to a few States—be extinguished to carry out the scheme? If Congress wants to give money to the Cubans, that is one thing; but if the sugar industry of the United States be destroyed to give Cuba control of the American market, that is another thing. It is the rank proposition that has been exploited in a long time, and the people of California will not submit to it.

LIMITED REFORM IN NEW YORK.

Governor Odell has struck the proposition of Sunday saloon opening in New York City a body blow. Bishop Potter and many other eminent ecclesiastical and reformers identified with the fast movement against the domination of Tammany Hall, advocated Sunday opening during certain hours. Mayor Low committed himself to the scheme to the extent of suggesting that the side doors be allowed to remain open by suffrage, which was in violation of the present excise law. District Attorney Jerome advocated an amendment which would permit the saloons to remain open during certain hours on Sunday.

In his message to the Legislature Governor Odell stands squarely by the law which forbids Sunday opening, and makes it unmistakably clear that he will oppose any attempt to amend it. This will probably end the scheme to amend the law, for Odell is a strong man and has the rural element of the Legislature solidly at his back.

His action puts the new administration in a quandary. If it enforces the law against Sunday opening it will bring upon itself a strong opposition from the Germans and the liquor element generally. If the violations of the law are permitted by suffrage, then the ire of the temperance people will be aroused, and the Mayor will be charged with entering into an unlawful engagement with the saloonkeepers.

The Kansas City authorities have declared war on mashers. For the first offense they are fined fifty dollars, and for the second they are sent to the rock pile for ninety days. The crusade has had the effect of clearing the streets of a certain class of well-dressed loafers whose offensive attentions to women are a great nuisance and a public scandal. The street masher—the fellow who ogles passing women in front of cigar stores and theaters—is a most despicable character. Frequently he is a wretch too vile to be properly classified in a decent newspaper. It requires severe measures to repress him, and his is one of the cases in which severity cannot be overdone. The mashing business is not especially prevalent in Oakland, but there are a few places where mashers hang out, and the police should promptly take them in hand.

The Republican members of Congress from the Southern States have decided to sit idly by the bill introduced by Crumpacker of Indiana to reduce the representation of those Southern States which have disfranchised the bulk of the colored vote. They consider the measure inopportune and impolitic. Other Republican members are inclined to regard it as experimenting with a question that may become explosive. There are still others who take the view that cutting down the South's representation in ratio to the colored vote disfranchisement is virtually giving the sanction of Congress to such disfranchisement. Naturally the Democrats will oppose the bill to a man. Under the circumstances the prospect for its passage does not seem bright.

As the opening of the new year is generally a season for reforms it is to be hoped the duck hunters will quit the unsportsmanlike practice of carrying their ammunition in a jug.

An Indiana man is making a fortune raising snakes; but they are not the kind raised on the bottle.

RANK CONDUCT OF POLICEMEN.

Alameda Officers are Thrown off Car for Bad Conduct.

ALAMEDA, Jan. 3.—This morning Chief of Police Conrad took the state from two special police officers, D. J. Renfro, nightwatchman at the Elcinal Yacht Club and Charles Johnson, nightwatchman at Hay & Wright's Ship Yards.

It appears that while riding on a street car near the local car barn last Wednesday night the two officers who were in an intoxicated condition, began carrying on a noisy and profane conversation. Conductor Storey informed them that they would have to leave the car or stop their talk. The officers at once cursed the conductor and showed their stars stating that they were officers and would do as they pleased. To their great surprise the conductor stopped the car and with the aid of his motorman he gave the two noisy specials a good thrashing and threw them from the car.

The matter will be brought before the trustees and in all probability both officers will be discharged.

TRUSTEES ARE LOOKING OVER PLANS.

ALAMEDA, Jan. 3.—Last night the Board of Library Trustees met for the purpose of considering the plans for the new Carnegie library. It was thought by some that the meeting would be open to the public, but the Board previously decided that it would not be just to allow the public to inspect the drawings, which would be a direct violation of the terms of competition. The design was not selected last night, it being the intention of the Board to make a thorough examination of each drawing before a selection is made. Only a few of the plans were discussed last night.

The Board will meet again next Tuesday night to continue the work of examination.

ALAMEDA TRUSTEES TO SETTLE TROUBLE.

ALAMEDA, Jan. 3.—The Board of Trustees will hold a committee meeting tonight and in all probability the recent trouble between Superintendent Wiese of the Electric Light Department and Trustee Miller, chairman of the Electric Light Committee, will be aired. Trustee Miller suspended Mr. Wiese but the latter has gone ahead with his work as usual.

Upon being asked what he thought of the trouble President Forrester of the Trustees said that he had heard but one side of the story and would wait until the matter was brought before the Board.

LOUIS LONG ON THE ROAD TO PENITENTIARY.

Louis Long, the alleged chicken thief, was held to answer before the Superior Court today by Judge Smith on a charge of burglary. Bail was fixed at $2,000.

The charge on which Long was held was of robbing the chicken house of A. W. St. John of Berkeley.

St. John identified three chickens which were in court as evidence as his property. Detective Slater testified that he had arrested the defendant with the chickens in his possession, but that the prisoner had broken away from him after the arrest, subsequently being arrested in Berkeley by Detective Marshall Alden after a desperate encounter.

It is alleged by the police that Long was supported by Mrs. Richardson, with whom he had eloped from Berkeley, by the proceeds derived from the sale of stolen chickens. Mrs. Richardson left a husband and three children to run away with Long.

ELMHURST PEOPLE ARE READY TO GIVE BATTLE.

GIVE THE TRANSIT COMPANY'S DIRECTORS A STATED TIME IN WHICH TO RIGHT A WRONG.

There was a largely attended meeting of the citizens of Elmhurst last evening in Red Men's Hall for the purpose of hearing the report of the committee appointed at a meeting held last Saturday night to ascertain from the Oakland Transit Company whether or not it intended to deprive the residents of Elmhurst of their commutation rates between that place and Fruitvale and Oakland.

R. B. Myers presided and J. M. Moore acted as secretary. It was decided after hearing the report of the committee to hold matters in abeyance until the request of the commuters can be laid before the Transit Company directors.

THE REPORT.

The committee's report was read by Dudley Kinsell as follows: "The committee appointed at a meeting held at Elmhurst on December 20, 1901, to call upon the Oakland Transit Company with a view to having it restore the commutation rates heretofore enjoyed by the patrons of the O., S. & L. & Baywards railway do report as follows:

"On Tuesday last we had an interview with W. F. Kelly, the General Manager of the company. The nature of our business was stated. Mr. Kelly desired us to state reasons why the commutation should be restored.

"One reason among others stated was that several hundred people, all commuters, had located here and built their homes on the strength of an established rate of fare of $3 per month. By the company's action, the fare had been raised to $5 per month, which raised worked a great hardship and in particular upon those who had not paid for their homes and who could not afford to stand an increase in fare of 100 per cent. Other reasons, equally legitimate and pertinent, were given.

"Mr. Kelly at first thought that our request could not be considered but later admitted that the hardship and injustice which would result from the raise in the fares were apparent and ought to be remedied if possible.

"He expressed his sympathy for those affected, but claimed to be powerless to act. No other change would be made without a meeting of the Board of Directors and as two of those who were largely interested were absent in the East, nothing could be done.

"He suggested that an interview with F. M. Smith, which has been held might accomplish something.

"Mr. Smith was seen and the talk with him was to the same effect as the talk with Mr. Kelly.

"Both Mr. Smith and Mr. Kelly seemed to be laboring under the im-

DEATH SUMMONS

EDWARD EVERETT

Edward Everett, one of Oakland's old residents and well known citizen, passed away at his home, 719 Eighth street last night at the age of 73 years. DECEMBER WAS A VERY DRY MONTH.

So little rain has fallen during the month of December that weather officials are dubious about about the water supply for the spring. The last month was the driest December known for twenty-three years. The rainfall was less than an inch of rain, whereas the average has been 4.55 inches for the month.

Second list of January offerings

Till February 1, the average purchasing power of a dollar, all over the house, will be about $1.30. Everything at short-ened prices is from our regular stock. All are this winter's goods, but we have no fear of having anything to carry over, for good goods, such as these, will certainly sprint at sale prices. Today, the following are mentioned, but don't forget that similar reductions prevail all over the house:

Winter Waists

—all this season's goods. Reduc-tions range from 15 to 33 1/2 per cent.
Flannelette Waists, now 50c, 75c and 85c.

Wool Waists, 90c, 1.00, 1.25, 1.50 up to the finest of French flannelette at 4.50.

Eider-Down House Coats

—winter 1901 goods, comfortable, stylish; reductions from 20 to 40 per cent. Prices now 50c, 69c, 75c, 85c and up to 3.00.

Silk Waists

—some reduced 150 per cent, few less than 25 per cent. Choice down-to-now styles; not an undesirable garment in the lot. Prices now 1.75, 3.50, 3.75, 4.00, 4.50, 5.00, 5.50, to 7.00.

Pillow Tops

—many reductions here from 25 to 50 per cent. Hundreds of excellent home and club designs. Prices now 10c, 12 1/2c, 15c, 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c.

Glove Reductions

—three are deserving of very special mention:
Velvet Mocha, all sizes and colors, regular 1.50 value—1.15.
"Crescent" Suede, all colors, regular 1.25 value—1.00.
Cape Walking Gloves; stylish shades; regularly sold at 1.25 and 1.15—1.00.

Price-cuts in Leather Goods

—all lines in the leather goods department are full and offer a very wide range. Values here are always especially good, but to keep in harmony with the rest of the store during January every article not reduced more will be sold subject to reduction of TEN PER CENT.

CHARLES E. COOK GIVEN A HANDSOME CHAIN.

Charles E. Cook, manager of the Central Theater, San Francisco, was presented on Christmas by Fred Beascoe, the impresario, with a superb gold watch. Mr. Cook was for years the very successful conductor of the Oakland Macdonough Theater. The Central Theater, operated by Beascoe, Thall & Mayer, proprietors also of the Alcazar Theater, was on New Year's eve, after the regular performance, the scene of an incident of which Mr. Cook was the principal figure. Mr. Cook was dispatched back to the stage on some pressing business. It was dark there when he arrived, but at once it became brilliantly illuminated. Among the throng of playing folk there congregated was George P. Webster, who immediately, in an eloquent speech, presented to Mr. Cook a gold chain of neat pattern, and a gold locket, suitably inscribed, and diamond studded.

On the locket were the words: "To our manager, C. E. Cook, from staff employees and Central Theater Company, 1902."
Mr. Cook, although taken aback, was enabled to express his feelings quite masterfully. Miss George Cooper then struck up: "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," all the voices and the band joined in, an hour of hilarity ensued.

It may not be amiss to add that through Mr. Cook's genius, he has been instrumental, largely, in occasioning the financial success and business prestige of the Central Theater, which now ranks as the foremost money-making playhouse in the metropolis.

SUCCESSOR TO VALENTINE.
E. H. Harriman, president of the Southern Pacific, was elected a director of Wells, Fargo & Company yesterday afternoon to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late director, J. J. Valentine.

Mr. Valentine was also president of Wells, Fargo & Company but no one was elected to that office, though Dudley Evans of New York was appointed acting president to serve until the regular annual meeting of the directors next September, when a president will be chosen.

THE CRELLIN HOME SOLD.
The Ruby Hill Vineyard Company has sold to D. J. Gregor the Crellin home at Eleventh and Oak streets for $12,000.

MILLS TALKS TO JEWISH LADIES.

Pastor of the Unitarian Church Lectures in Synagogue.

Rev. B. Fay Mills, pastor of the First Unitarian Church last evening addressed the Jewish Ladies' Council at the Synagogue. His subject was, "The Twentieth Century Religion."

Mr. Mills said in part:
"People say that this is a materialistic age, and that our lives and all our endeavors are given up to materialism. I do not think that this is so. Our lives are not given up to materialism but to the investigation of matter that we may gain a greater life."

"In our lives we must look to the inspiration of the moment. As we gaze over the great epochs that have made history we find the deeds beyond comprehension have been performed, and as we look beyond we see yet more wonderful things to come, but today belongs to us, and it is for us to work out our own inspiration now. As we go forward in the program of things it may come that we shall abolish disease and give death no hearing in our councils. We are learning how to learn; we are discovering discovery; we are inventing invention, and we have so nearly pierced the veil that shadows the other world from this that we begin to doubt if the veil really exists."

"Institutions of learning have come to identify themselves with the passion for discovery. The university of today is reaching out after a larger knowledge."

"When we consider all these things the glory of the new religion confronts us. The religion of the new century will be one of learning; it will be full of gentleness and kindness and unbounded love. We will see a religion of learners and of workers. In almost every religion there has been placed the implication that there is something degrading about labor. People have been taught to despise the world and draw themselves away from it as being unfit for pure souls to be in touch with. The Hindu philosophers have said that the world is an illusion that only the unseeing soul. But against that thought there has arisen a new accidental inspiration which teaches us how to live in this world with one another and how to work for one another."

"That religion teaches us to take hold of what we are doing so that we may do it well and do it beautifully. To do this we must be unselfish and give, not receive. The world does not become better because we have not enough education or knowledge. We have an abundance of that the child goes to the grammar school to forget, and when he enters the High School he forgets all he knew, and from High School to college it is the same. Knowledge passeth away, and the training is good for the child; but it is not knowledge we want."

"What we want in our new religion and what we will have is love. That is the solution of life. Not the power to make others love us, but for us to love them. That is what will make the twentieth century religion."

POLLARDS SINGERS ARE LITTLE ARTISTS.

The first juvenile operatic company which has played here in Oakland is now giving a round of performances at the Macdonough Theater. These little singers are among the phenomenal performers who have ever come from this city. They come all the way from Australia and are under the management of men who have passed twenty years in this particular line of stage business. There is no man with kindly instincts who can not find pleasure in the artless recreation of little people. There is, therefore, every reason why people should throng the Macdonough during the remaining performances of the Pollard Juvenile Opero Company. The oldest of the children is only in her sixteenth year and the years of others run thence down almost to those of little toddlers. This, however, does not militate against the giving of a performance which in its vocalism, stage business and ensemble work is well-nigh perfect. The children have played to crowded houses in San Francisco and elsewhere and should have fine audiences here.

There will be a performance this evening, tomorrow afternoon and evening and on Sunday night. The bill for tonight and tomorrow afternoon will be "The Geisha" and on Saturday and Sunday nights, the charming opera, "In Town."

THE LAMBERT ESTATE.

A petition has been filed for the distribution of the estate of Catherine Lambert deceased. The estate consists of about $300 over and above $1,083.75 which were advanced to pay the debts and bequests of the deceased by Mrs. Catherine Walsh.

TRIAL IS CONTINUED.

The case of Frank Le Roy, charged with burglarizing the premises of Hermann Hann, has been continued till January 9th.

LECTURE IS POSTPONED.

The lecture to be given at Observatory Hall this evening by Prof. Burt Estes Howard of Stanford University has been indefinitely postponed on account of the inability of Mr. Howard to attend.

REGISTRATION BEGINS.

Re-registration of voters was begun at the County Clerk's office today.

OLD FOLKS.

Men and women who have reached advanced years of life need a medicine to tone up the system and strengthen the stomach and kidneys, which after so many years' faithful service have become weakened. The best medicine to meet their needs is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Do not fail to try it.

Grandfather John Harris, Claytonville, Kans., says: "I have used your Bitters and attribute my long life and continued good health to its use."

NEW SECRETARY FOR THE BOARD OF TRADE.

Edwin Stearns Succeeds Craigie Sharp as Secretary.

PRESIDENT KAHN TELLS ABOUT THE PLANS FOR THE NEW YEAR.

The directors of the Board of Trade held a special meeting this morning and accepted the resignation of Craigie Sharp.

Edwin Stearns was elected to fill the vacancy.

Mr. Sharp has been with the Board for a number of years and has rendered faithful service. He retires in order to enter business for himself.

Mr. Stearns, the new secretary comes to Oakland very highly recommended. He is at present connected with the business department of the Los Angeles Express. He is a fine writer and is well read and seems particularly well fitted for the position to which he has been elected. No doubt he will put great energy into his work and is expected to accomplish large results.

The Board of Trade has had a very prosperous year and has done great work in advancing the interests of the city. This year the Board expects to widen the scope of the work and will work for the progress and advancement of Alameda county.

"We expect a very prosperous year," said President Sol Kahn. "We intend to widen the scope of our work and we will endeavor to secure another location."

"We now have in view the matter of establishing a permanent county exhibit in Oakland. This ought to be done. We would like all the towns in the county to co-operate with us in this respect. We would like them all to take an interest and have a pride in a permanent exhibit. Such an exhibit would do a large amount of good for Alameda county."

"It is our intention to increase the membership of the board and also to increase the dues. We believe we have a large work to perform and we know we can accomplish a great deal toward the advancement of our county."

REVIVING THE COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION.

A move is on foot to re-organize the Alameda County Bar Association, which has existed in name only for some years. It is supposed to hold meetings at regular intervals as also an annual banquet, which will be attended by members of the Bar and the Judiciary.

The association was in a flourishing condition some time ago, but the departure of number of the older practitioners at the Bar to San Francisco has caused it to fall into a state of inactivity approaching dissolution.

DIETZ OPERA HOUSE WILL RE-OPEN NEXT MONDAY.

The Dietz Opera House, at the corner of Twelfth and Webster streets, will be known hereafter as the Dietz Vaudeville House. The place will reopen on next Monday night, after being thoroughly renovated. It will be lighted with electricity throughout, and an elevated floor will be put in place. This will give each patron a full view of the stage. The program for the first week is a large one, including some of the best vaudeville stars in the country. Hereafter performances will be given every night, instead of Saturday and Sunday evenings as heretofore. There will also be a matinee every Sunday afternoon, and Thursdays will be amateur nights, the regular performances also being given on that evening. Frank V. Greene is the proprietor. He has secured the services of the veteran actor E. J. Holden, who will act as stage manager.

STEEL RAILS COMING.

The Oakland Transit is awaiting the arrival of thirty carloads of steel rails from Eastern mills which are to be used in repairing the railways of the corporation and also in the construction of several branch lines.

HOMESTEAD AND ALLOWANCE. Mrs. Ingeborg O. Ramsey has petitioned the court to have a homestead set aside for and to have $40 ordered as a family allowance from the estate of her deceased husband, Peter Ramsey. There are six children, who range in years from 15 to 21. The estate is valued at $1,250.

FREE LIBRARY TRUSTEES. The Trustees of the Free Library will meet next Tuesday evening.

For Over Fifty Years Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents.

ARTIST SEABURG'S SON TO PAY ALIMONY.

Judge Ellsworth this morning ordered Arthur Seabury to pay his wife, Charlotte Seabury, alimony at the rate of $5 a month. Seabury appeared under order to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt for failure to pay his wife the allowance ordered by the court.

Seabury says he is a car-cleaner and earns only $1.75 per day and that he can not afford to furnish his wife with all the delinquent of a man of more liberal income. He also urged as a reason for his implied contempt of the court's order that some of his wife's progeny had no claims upon his bounty, because when his wife sued him for divorce and was granted a decree, he had already meditated a similar proceeding against her, alleging a heinous offense on her part.
